FREIGHT RATES TO BE REDUCED

LOWER CHARGE TO BE MADE ON CARLOAD LOTS OF CERTAIN
BUILDING MATERIALS

ORDER IS GIVEN OUT

CONSTRUCTION INTERESTS TO BE BENEFITED BY LOWER
RATES FOR SHIPPING

Building and construction interests of Glendale learned today that there is every reason to expect a further reduction in the cost of some building materials, as indicated by a state railroad commission order, instructing the Pacific Electric railway to reduce its rate on carload lots of sand, gravel, crushed rock and similar commodities from five to 35 per cent.

The order will become effective as soon as the company can issue a new tariff, which will probably be within ten days, company officials say. According to P. J. Day, general freight agent of the interurban system, the order was made upon voluntary application of the company for a readjustment of rates on the building materials in question.

Would Have Used Trucks
Mr. Day says that the twenty-five per cent blanket increase in freight rates granted in August made the rate on sand, gravel, crushed rock and similar commodities used in road building and general construction so high that contractors would have been forced to haul by truck if they had not been given the benefit of a rate readjustment.

The new order will benefit contractors in Los Angeles, Orange, San Bernardino and Riverside counties, officials of the interurban line say.

GAME TO TAKE PLACE

The sixty members of the Glendale high school Y. M. C. A. were the dinner guests of the Alhambra high school last night.

A program of after-dinner speeches was an interesting feature of the affair. Professor Cookman, of Glendale, and Mr. Downing, of Alhambra, were the principal speakers of the evening. Dale Woods and Fred Stauff, of Glendale high school, were among those who responded to toasts.

The banquet was followed by a basketball game in which the Glendale team was victorious. The score was 18 to 16.

The Glendale "High Y" expect to return the courtesy extended it by an entertainment in honor of the Alhambra "Hi Y" in the near future.

AND VEGETABLE STALL IN
C. CASWELL PLACE

Otto Miller, who has been an employee of the Central Market for over two years, will open a fruit and vegetable market in conjunction with the meat market to be opened by C. Caswell at 111 East Broadway. This will be open for business Saturday of this week.

New Meat Market

A new meat market is to be established in the Basket Grocery, 208 East Broadway. The market is to be renovated and remodeled, and its formal opening is set for next Saturday, December 4, although it is possible that meats may be served before that date, if the changes to be made have been effected before that time. The Basket Grocery Market announces the serving of only the freshest and choicest meats and fish at the lowest prices possible.

MORE OF FIVE MILLIONS LOOT IS FOUND

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa, Nov. 30.—Federal officers today found $23,860 in currency which Kieth Collins had secreted in Omaha before his flight to Oklahoma, where he was captured Sunday. All the currency was in ten dollar bills and was part of the $5,000,000 loot taken from a Burlington mail train here November 11. Collins claimed to have burned all the bonds in his possession, estimated to be valued at $3,000,000.

EUGENE CHAFIN, PROHIBITIONIST, IS DEAD

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LONG BEACH, Nov. 30.—Eugene Chafin, twice a candidate for president of the United States on the prohibition ticket, died in his residence here today. Death probably was the result of burns suffered ten days ago when a gas heater exploded in his home, igniting his clothing. At that time Henry Murray, who was visiting Chafin, probably saved the latter from being burned to death by wrapping quilts about him, extinguishing the flames.

GIVEN BY RAILWAY

Patrons of the Eagle Rock City car lines of the Los Angeles Railway, appeared before the board of public utilities in Los Angeles yesterday afternoon and complained of the service given on that division.

WAY COMPANY SETS NEW
MARK DURING OCTOBER

The Glendale & Montrose Railway company broke all previous passenger records for its Eagle Rock and Montrose lines during the month of October. A total of 36,000 passengers were carried, according to a statement made, and this is taken as another bit of evidence of the remarkable growth of Glendale and surrounding territory.

COME BY AUTO

EARL WELCH AND FAMILY ARE NOW IN GLENDALE AFTER JOURNEY FROM CHICAGO

Traveling by automobile from their home in Chicago, Earl Welch and family arrived in Glendale recently and will make this city their future home. They are residing at 813 South Brand boulevard. Welch is a painter, decorator and contractor and he is establishing himself in that business in Glendale.

In making the auto trip here, Welch drove from Chicago to Davenport, took the Old Trails route to McCook, Neb., cut across Kansas to the Ocean-to-Ocean route and Denver, then took the Midland trail to Salt Lake, then on to Los Angeles on the Arrowhead highway. He found excellent roads, excepting about 100 miles. He had practically no tire or motor trouble.

BOYS TO MEET

GLENDALE LADS WILL HOLD
GREAT GATHERING NEXT
SUNDAY AFTERNOON

The boys of Glendale are planning to show the older folks just what they can do in the way of a boys' big meeting next Sunday afternoon at the First Methodist church. "Fighting" Bob Schuler, formerly of Texas but more recently of Los Angeles, has promised the boys a talk full of pep and straight from the shoulder.

The Boy Scouts, Y. M. C. A. clubs, older high school boys, churches, Sunday schools and mens' brotherhood are backing the big meeting so it will go across with a bang. Reservations will be made for any boy organization, club or Sunday school sitting together at the meeting. Rex C. Kelley, Y. M. C. A. secretary, has arrangements in charge.

Freeholders Meet

The board of freeholders, chosen to draw up a city charter for Glendale, will hold a public meeting at the city hall tonight, at 7:45 o'clock. A committee will make a report on its study of charters of other cities.

CONFERENCE ON SEWER PROJECT

CITY MANAGER WATSON AND SANITARY ENGINEERS IN HEARING WITH OTHERS

PLANS SUGGESTED

DIFFERENT PROPOSITIONS ARE CONSIDERED; CALL MEETING
WEEK FROM THURSDAY

City Manager T. W. Watson and Messrs. Olmsted and Gillelen, the firm of sanitary engineers engaged by the city of Glendale to work out its sewage disposal problem, composed the committee which has been in conference with a committee of sanitary officers of the city of Los Angeles to consider a plan for Glendale's sharing in the proposed new outfall sewer for Los Angeles. The Glendale committee has met several times with the Los Angeles men.

The firm of Olmsted & Gillelen worked out an independent sewage disposal plan for the city of Glendale some time ago. Their plan is a complete and practical one. The entire disposal works, including pumps, filterbeds, etc., would cost $400,000, and involve a certain sum for annual operating costs besides. The Evening News published a report of this plan in full at the time it was submitted.

Six Million Bond Issue

The proposed plan for Los Angeles' new outfall sewer would involve a bond issue of over $6,000,000. If Glendale could share in this sewage disposal plan, her proposition would be $150,000, plus the sum of $350,000 for running the sewer from Glendale to the point where it would connect with the Los Angeles sewer. This plan would be less expensive to Glendale in the long run, because the operating cost would be very small, it is declared.

However, comes the Los Angeles annexation committee on the scene at this stage, with the recommendation that no outside community be allowed to participate in the benefits of the outfall sewer unless it is willing to be annexed to Los Angeles. This recommendation has been referred to the public welfare committee of the Los Angeles city council.

If Glendale can participate in the Los Angeles sewage disposal plan it will be less expensive than the construction of an independent sewage disposal works, for it will save operating expense, it is pointed out.

If Glendale must be annexed to Los Angeles in order to participate in the benefits of her new outfall sewer, this city must pay the $150,000, its proportion of the cost, plus the $350,000 for connection, and in addition must assume its proportion of Los Angeles' bonded indebtedness.

The annexation committee and the public welfare committee will meet to discuss the recommendation of the former a week from next Thursday.

SINN FEINS VOTE WAR ON ENGLAND, REPORT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LONDON, Nov. 30.—That the Sinn Fein parliament has formally declared a state of war with England was the belief today of many officials of the Irish office. The Irish office has no direct information that war has been declared, but evidence is accumulating that such a step has been taken. Sinn Fein forces have renewed attacks on British forces here and in Ireland. The Dublin murders and the slaughter of sixteen black and tan police yesterday were accepted here as the work of men who regarded themselves as carrying on a legalized war.

BODIES OF MISSING SEAMEN DISCOVERED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 30.—The bodies of Capt. A. B. Jensen and Mate Hohmann of the schooner W. J. Pirrie, lost in last Saturday's storm off the Washington coast, were found today by Indians, washed up on the beach at Cape Johnson, according to a message received here today. Two sailors were found alive. No further word indicating the fate of the remainder of the crew had been received here, but hope practically was abandoned that the others would be found alive.

Augustus, 203 West Los Feliz road, journeyed to La Habra Thanksgiving day, where they enjoyed dinner with Mrs. Joe Rawson and husband. Mrs. Rawson is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Augustus. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pence of Pasadena, son-in-law and youngest daughter of Mrs. Augustus, and their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Davis of Eagle Rock, were also guests, as were Lieutenant Commander C. B. Camerer of the U. S. N. medical corps, and wife, who had arrived the evening before. Lieutenant Commander Camerer is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Camerer, who were very much surprised to see them. HIS INJURIES; LEAVES
RELATIVES HERE

Colonel W. J. Bailey, principal and president of the Los Angeles Military academy, Huntington drive, died from injuries received when his automobile turned over twice Thanksgiving night near San Juan Capistrano as he was rounding a curve on his way to San Diego. His daughter Marjorie and two academy cadets, who accompanied him, escaped with minor injuries. Colonel Bailey was taken to the Santa Ana hospital, where he died early Saturday morning, never fully regaining consciousness. He was brother-in-law of Captain and Mrs. G. O. Lockwood of 415 East Harvard street, this city. Funeral services were held yesterday, with interment at Forest Lawn Memorial Park with full military honors.

WEATHER FORECAST—Partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday.

PLAN FOR DRIVE WILL BE HEARD

BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
TO GET TOGETHER

TO HOLD MEETING

METHOD OF INCREASING ROLL TO BE PRESENTED AT
COMING SESSION

The board of directors of the chamber of commerce will meet at 7:45 tomorrow evening to consider further the proposed membership campaign to be held before the annual election, which takes place next month.

W. B. Courtney, director of campaigns for the American City Bureau, arrived in Los Angeles this morning from San Francisco and will present his plan for a membership drive.

It is probable that several plans, including those of Mr. Courtney and T. A. Stevenson, of the American Social Reserve, will be presented to the public sometime late in the month, prior to the campaign for members, which may take the form of an intensive five or six days' drive after the holidays.

With a larger membership from which to choose new officers and from which to form committees to promote needed lines of civic work, Glendale's chamber of commerce will start the new year with a vim and vigor commensurate with its responsibility as the representative body of a fast-growing city.

SUGAR IS DOWN; THAT'S NOT ALL

MANY OTHER ARTICLES DROP
IN PRICE IN GLENDALE
IT IS ANNOUNCED

SALE ON WEDNESDAY

AFFORDS ADVENTURISTS CHANCE
TO PARTICIPATE IN SALE
PRICES WEEKLY

Sugar is going down; in fact, it has gone down, as one may see by reading the ad. of the Sebastian groceries in today's issue of The Evening News.

The Sebastian groceries have other interesting news in their ad. besides the good news of the reduction in the price of sugar.

These two stores enjoy a large trade among the Adventists of Glendale, who, as we all know, do no shopping on Saturday. With this fact in mind, the Sebastian groceries have thoughtfully inaugurated a mid-week special sale in addition to the one they have always held on Saturday.

Beginning tomorrow and on the Wednesday of each week thereafter, the Sebastian groceries, 145 North Glendale avenue and 1127 North Central avenue, will feature specials as important as those of their Saturday sales. This gives the Adventists an opportunity to reap the advantages of the low prices which prevail at Sebastian groceries' special sales.

Sugar at five pounds for 48 cents is encouraging, when one thinks of the exorbitant prices we have been paying. In larger quantities it is even a little less—ten pounds for 95 cents, and 100 pounds for $9.25.

Fancy peaches at 20 cents a can. Dromedary dates at 22 cents a package. Bellefleur apples at five pounds for 25 cents and new prunes, 70's and 80's, at two pounds for 25c—these are quotations that sound good to the housekeeper, who knows her family need fruit in their diet. Cluster raisins at 35 cents a package, ten bars of Lenox soap at 45 cents, pink salmon at 15 cents, and navy beans at four pounds for 25 cents are other good quotations made for the mid-week sale by the Sebastian groceries, and so is M. J. B. coffee in one-pound cans at 42 cents and in three-pound cans at $1.25.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Starring and Ralph Peters or Jefferson, Iowa, who are spoujourn here for the winter, were guests Sunday afternoon of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Steele, 1639 Gardena avenue (Serena place), first for a motor party and later at an evening luncheon.

PLAYERS INVITED

AN INTER-COMMUNITY TOURNA-

MENT IS NOW BEING HELD BY

SOUTH PASADENA CLUB

Do you play chess? If so, the Rendezvous club of South Pasadena is anxious to have you enter the inter-community chess tournament
now under way.

Douglas S. Houghton, secretary of the organization, writes to The News to state that chess players of Glendale are especially invited to participate in the tournament. He says: "We are campaigning for chess players from your community, also tourist, to visit our club between the hours of 2:30 and 11:30 p. m., and enjoy a game of chess or 'look on,' as they desire. We have a woman player in the tournament, Miss Julian of Pasadena. She succeeded in winning a draw from our strongest player, H. Lucas. Miss Julian also drew a game from Judge
Guy Richard Crump of South Pasadena, which was the first draw game scored in the tournament.

"I enclose a detailed score to publish. We are holding the entries open for Glendale players. Those entered are just average home-town players and we are putting all players in the contest so that the tourney will automatically classify them for future inter-community tournaments. Then those finishing in the first division will form Class A and those finishing in the second and third divisions respectively will form Classes B and C. Therefore, we want beginners, as well as average and strong players from neighboring communities to enter and become classified.

stir itself to have representation in

BACK ON FORCE

JAMES L. BROWN IS ONCE MORE

MADE MEMBER OF GLENDAL E

POLICE DEPARTMENT

Friends of James L. Brown will be pleased to learn that he is again on the Glendale police force. Mr.
Brown was a member of the San Fernando police department for several months after leaving Glendale.
He resumed his former position about two weeks ago.

Buys Home Here

E. O. Stafford, a druggist of Marquette, Mich., recently purchased a home in Glendale, on West Broadway near Columbus, and, with his wife, is now one of the residents of the city.

"The cold drove me to California
—and then to Glendale," said Mr.
Stafford today. "Had I remained in Marquette this winter, my coal bill would have been about $400. Business calls me back to Marquette in a short time and I dread the trip; I hate to face that cold again."

BIG HONEY YEAR

REMARKABLE RECORD IS MADE

IN ORANGE COUNTY FROM

SALE OF PRODUCTS

Of the 300 tons of honey produced in Orange county the past year, which has been a banner honey year,
all but about fifteen or sixteen tons have been sold. The greater part of this was handled through the Orange County Honey Producers' Co-operative exchange, which is affiliated with the California Honey Producers' Co-operative exchange. The prices have been good and the crop has brought more than $100,000 to bee men of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Calkins, of
The Evening News staff, are residing at 116 West Lomita street.

CITY'S NEED

HIGH CLASS HOTELS WOULD

BRING GREATER NUMBER

OF PEOPLE HERE

Glendale needs hotels, large, modern, up-to-date hotels that attract the class of tourists who want service and are willing to pay for it.
Hotels of this character would bring people here who would spend money in Glendale; better even than that, many of them would ultimately become permanent residents; they would induce friends and relatives to locate here; new business enterprises would spring up; the city would expand her boundaries. All this growth hinges upon the establishment of commodious, up-to-date hostelries like those of Pasadena,
Los Angeles, Long Beach and other important cities.

And we could have the hotels, easily; the capital necessary could readily be interested, for the superlative advantages of Glendale are patent to all shrewd men. All that hinders this much-to-be-desired step forward, the building of modern hotels in Glendale, is the fact that we have no adequate sewer system.

This is the only circumstance that is retarding Glendale at the present time. All other things for greater development, material and spiritual, are at hand—a location unsurpassed, pure, health-giving mountain water, good schools, many churches, fine streets, beautiful surroundings, and, best of all, a citizenship of marked intelligence.

The lack of an adequate sewer system is not due to an ignorance of its need or lack of ambition to remedy this condition. In fact, Glendale is working in conjunction with all of the San Fernando valley to make a way to supply this lack as speedily as may be. Engineers are even now working on the problem.
All Glendale can do is to possess her soul in patience and pray heaven to speed the day when this one obstacle to her greater development shall be removed.

At Methodist Church

At the First Methodist church,

Sunday morning, Dr. C. M. Crist preached to a full house. His theme was The Friendship of Jesus. Rev.
Crist took as his text John 15:15.
"I have called you friends," and said
in part:

"There is no more beautiful thought in all the scriptures than that suggested in our text. None is more dear to the christian, none more attractive to the wanderer.
Dear to the christian in its realization and dear to the wanderer because of the possibility suggested,— Jesus our Friend!

"Friendship is a mutual experience. Not only is Jesus our friend, but we are His friends. Furthermore, no one can be a friend of Jesus and not be at the same time a friend to humanity. The 'in as much' of the Savior is fundamental.
The converse is true also. To do anything for Jesus we must do it for some one down here. Real friendship volunteers. That British soldier was right when he quickly responded to the question, 'Where did you lose your arm?' by saying, 'I did not lose it, I gave it.'"

Dr. Crist continued by declaring that "this is the spirit of Jesus. The World's Redeemer did not say, Blessed are they that spare themselves for they shall have an easy time.' What he did say was, 'Blessed are they that fling themselves away in a noble cause for they shall be immortal.'"

"The friendship of Jesus inspires
His followers to a world service.
The lover of the Lord will be a lover to all the world. But not only is this true; Jesus becomes the center

PROTEST IS MADE

ORGANIZATION MAKES OBJECTION TO CARTOONING TEACHERS AS UNATTRACTIVE

The Institute for Public Service has started a movement to persuade cartoonists to portray public school teachers as pretty women rather than "perfect frights." It is much in earnest, believing that pictures showing our feminine instructors of youth to be "homely as a rail fence," without beauty of face or grace of person, tend to breed disrespect not only for the occupation, but for the educational system in general. The ungallant conduct of some cartoonists is explicable only on the theory that they have retained that false sense of boyhood wrongs, of probably deserved punishments at the hands of early teachers and are now taking their revenge.

Perhaps the best way to cure the cartoonists who have been guilty of the discourtesy would be to have them attend a teachers' institute and make them sit on the platform under the merciless scrutiny of a thousand sparkling eyes. They would be so overcome by the display of consummate pulchritude, effectually refuting the insinuations of their slanderous cartoons, that they would take a vow never again to offend.

INCOME FIGURES

FAMILIES WITH SMALL INCOMES SEEM HARDEST HIT WITH GOVERNMENT MEASURE

Each one of the 256 individuals who, during 1918, received an income of $500,000 or more, had on an average a net income of $399,353, after paying his income tax last year; while the 3,013,816 persons and families having an income of $1000 to $2000 had an average of only $1925 left, according to an analysis of income tax returns by George P. Hampton, managing director of the Farmers' National council.

The 245 persons who had an income of $50,000 and up to $50,000, therefore, had left an average 207 times as much income apiece after paying their income tax, as the 3,000,000 poorer individuals.

Those with incomes of $7000 or less, subject to the income tax, constituted 68.11 per cent of the total number making returns last year.

They and the eighteen odd million families which in 1918 received less than $2,000,000 pay vastly more under the income-tax law in proportion to their ability to pay than the richest people in America.

The 43,037 persons having an income of over $25,000 in 1918 had an average income of $6,892, and each of them had left on the average, after paying their income tax, an income of $44,141.

On the average, only one-eighth of the income in 1918, of all persons reporting incomes of $1000 to $2000 was derived from property, while seven-tenths, on an average, of the income of those in receipt of an income of $500,000 to $2,000,000 was derived from property, and nearly 96 per cent of the income of those in receipt of $2,000,000 and over came from property.

Party Leaders Meet

It is announced that members of the executive committee of the Republican state and county central committees will meet in Los Angeles this afternoon and outline plans for a Republican conference to be held in the ninth district to name a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Congressman-elect Van de Water. Raymond Benjamin, chairman of the state organization, issued the call for today's meeting.

MAKES ANSWER

G. B. WOODBERRY HAS REPLY TO COMMUNICATION ABOUT CIVIC CENTER SITE

G. B. Woodberry requested The Evening News to publish the following in answer to a communication appearing in this paper last night relative to the action of the city trustees in announcing no commission was to be paid for the sale of a site for a civic center:

Editor Evening News: Yesterday's issue gives a prominent place to the plaint of a local real estate man regarding the badness of our people as to commissions; of our city fathers as to taxes and an alleged desire to heap odium on his profession in relation to the proposed civic center site and as to the selfishness of our people in general.

There is no objection to any citizen taking issue with the local authorities, his neighbors, etc. Indeed, it is often most desirable in the interests of the people at large, but when he does this he should be wise enough to be sure of his ground.

I have no quarrel with the writer on the merits of the question; he is entitled to his opinion, as I am to mine, which is that the trustees should be commended for their attitude in this matter. However, I do take exception to the slurs cast on those connected with our municipal government. It is "common knowledge" to those who are informed on the subject that many of our citizens have given of their time, their brains and of their money in hard cash to the city while they were in office without remuneration except in results as shown by our city's reputation and advancement. Even now some fifteen citizens are working for the good of Glendale as they see it without material recompense.

Exception is also taken to the allusion to our heavy and burdensome taxes. This allusion conveys to the reader the impression that our municipal government is responsible. It should be "common knowledge" what causes are at work tending each year to add more and more heavily to the enormous revenues raised in our county of Los Angeles and our state, and that these causes are beyond control of our city.

It is to be expected that a wide-awake, successful business man such as the writer of the article, would arm himself with the facts and I respectfully refer him to the official "Taxpayers' Guide" issued by the county supervisors, a careful perusal will be enlightening and instructive. And, finally, brother, is it well to refer to the home folks as "your home folks" and "your official fathers?" Being a resident of Glendale you should shoulder your share of responsibility and say "our home folks," etc.

G. B. WOODBERRY.

HOLD BAZAAR

JUNIOR PHILATHEA HOLDS BIG SALE; BOOTHS ERECTED BY DYNAMOS CLASS BOYS

The building on Brand boulevard formerly occupied by Harry Chase's real estate office was the scene of a lively and festive event last Saturday afternoon and night when the Junior Philathea of the First Presbyterian church held their bazaar.

The booths, erected by the boys of the Dynamos Class, were tastefully decorated in crepe paper, holly and evergreen boughs, and the effect was very "Christmasy."

A great many availed themselves of the opportunity to do some early Christmas shopping and visited the fancy work booth, where a display of ornamental and useful articles had been arranged. Among the special attractions were the stocking dolls, made and dressed by the girls of the club. Another attraction, especially for the little folks, was a large grab bag, where by simply pulling a string one might obtain all sorts of wonderful things.

So splendid was the home-made candy that by the middle of the afternoon the supply was exhausted. Cakes, pies, salads and "hot dogs"—well, if you wished any of these delicious "products of the pantry," you had to be on hand early.

A Victrola, which had been graciously loaned for the occasion by Salmacia Bros., furnished delightful music, which added to the festivity and jollity of the scene. Others who aided the club in their bazaar were Messrs. Eastman and Smith, who donated the use of the building, and J. A. Newton, who supplied the electrical fixtures. Through the co-operation of everyone, the bazaar was a success, the receipts totaling about $800.

ATTEND BANQUET

GLENDALE IS REPRESENTED AT TOURNAMENT OF ROSES BOOSTER DINNER

Representing Glendale, Hartley Shaw, chairman of the board of trustees, Dr. Jessie A. Russell, vice-president of the chamber of commerce, and A. T. Cowan, publisher of The Evening News, attended a banquet held in Pasadena last night by the Tournament of Roses association.

Delegates from many southern California communities were present at the gathering and a number of them made brief talks. Dr. Russell spoke in behalf of the city of Glendale, urging close co-operation between the various communities. She also said that while Glendale had not yet determined to have a float in the Tournament of Roses, the same was true last year—then Glendale entered and won one of the prizes.

Number of Talks Made

W. L. Leishman, president of the tournament, called the gathering to order and presented Seward A. Simmons as toastmaster. W. H. Reeves, city commissioner of Pasadena, extended a welcome and A. G. Arnoll, assistant secretary of the Los Angeles chamber of commerce, pledged that city's aid to the tournament.

Rex B. Goodcell, judge of the superior court of San Bernardino county, offered San Bernardino's support and, incidentally, called attention to the orange show to be held in that city next February.

Other speakers were Mayor W. T. Lisenby of Long Beach; Arthur Cardwell, secretary of the Coachella valley chamber of commerce; Frank Kern, secretary of the Redondo Beach chamber of commerce; Leslie Henry, of the University of California; Professor H. J. Lucas, alumnus of Ohio State university; Mrs. F. J. Wagner, president of the Santa Monica Woman's club; Mr. Knight, of Alhambra; C. F. Prisk and F. H. Kellogg, of Pasadena; J. P. Baumgartner, of Santa Ana; Mayor Porter, of Riverside; J. L. Mathews, of Covina, and C. E. Daggert, who, twenty-seven years ago, was the head of the first tournament.

YOUTH? MATURITY?

DEFINITE SOLUTION IS NOT REACHED AND PROBABLY NEVER WILL BE

The question whether youth is to be preferred to a more mature period of life has furnished food for controversy from the earliest times, and fortunately we are no nearer a final answer today than we were when Cicero glorified old age. For this is one of the few questions in which the impossibility of a definite solution need not deprive the parties to the controversy of any fun.

As a theme to inspire poets, youth has a shade the better of it over old age. The writers who laud the pleasures of the declining years of life seem to be somewhat on the defensive, as if they were rescuing old age from becoming considered a necessary although mild affliction. While those who tune their lyre to youth sing with the assurance of one who scents victory in the air. They tell us that for youth life is still in the making, and that youth is free.

It is this last note on which a recent writer on the subject seizes in an effort to appraise the alleged freedom of youth. Youth, he says, is a "time when one did what one didn't want to. One was helpless—much as in the army—one drifted through the years with bewilderment."

Often in a state of apprehension as to what was going to happen next. It is the time when the born bolt and nut manufacturer is obliged to study English poetry, when the inspired painter or musician is compelled to master Conic sections. It is a period of introspective morbidity, or callow religious hysteria, of agonizing shyness.

A most delightful thing about this whole controversy is that anything that may be said on the subject is so tinged with personal feeling and reflects so much the individual's own experience that what may be true of him may still be wholly untrue in the case of another individual. Many grownups looking today at youth about them will wonder where any one ever got the idea that these young people were afflicted with "agonizing shyness." And one may conceivably find many old people who will readily admit that if anything has got hold of youth about them it is not "callow religious hysteria."

Fortunately this theme will continue to invite writers and speakers of all sorts. One may learn more and more about old age and youth; but unless the future is not to be interpreted by the past, every individual will gather his final solution to this question from his own personal experience.

MAY ENTER RACE
JOHN B. ELLIOTT, COLLECTOR OF PORT, MAY SEEK CHANCE TO RUN FOR CONGRESS
New interest is given the proposed election in the ninth congressional district to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Congressman-elect Van de Water, by the announcement that John B. Elliott, collector of customs, may become a candidate. Elliott is a democrat and if the other candidates run as independents, his friends say he would make the race interesting.

Republican leaders plan to center on one candidate and a meeting of various men prominent in different sections of the district will be held in Pasadena soon to agree, if possible, upon a republican candidate.

FORM OF PRAYER

PLEADING IS SUBMITTED TO EVENING NEWS READERS BY ONE OF SUBSCRIBERS

The editor of The News is in receipt of the following, entitled, "A Prayer," from one of the paper's subscribers:

"Let me do my work each day, and if the darkened hours of despair overcome me, may I not forget the strength that comforted me in the desolation of other times. May I still remember the bright hours that found me walking over the silent hills of my childhood, or dreaming on the margin of the quiet river, when a light glowed within me and I promised my early God to have courage mid the tempests of the changing years. Spare me from bitterness and the sharp passions of unguarded moments. May I not forget that poverty and riches are of the spirit, and though the world may know me not may my thoughts and actions be such as will keep me friendly with myself.

"Lift my eyes from the earth and let me forget not the use of the stars. Forbid that I should judge lest I condemn myself; let me not follow the world but walk calmly in my path. Give me a few friends who will love me for what I am, and keep ever burning before my vagrant steps the kindly light of hope. And though age and infirmity overtake me, teach me still to be thankful for life and for time's old memories that are good and sweet. And may the evening twilight find me gentle still."

VALUE OF CROP

CALIFORNIA CITRUS CROP IS VALUED AT $81,200,000 OFFICIAL DECLARES

According to information coming from Berkeley, Calif., the value of the citrus crop of California for the year ending August 21, 1920, is $81,200,000. Dean Walter Mulford of the University of California college of agriculture declared that more than 150,000,000 acres of land in the state were devoted to this crop, which led all other fruit crops in value and in acreage. Four times as many oranges as lemons were raised.

"Lemon growers of California must find some way to overcome the handicap of the exchange rate," Dean Mulford declared. "Although the selling cost was kept down to the remarkably low figure of 2.01 per cent of the delivered value, California lemons cost the growers not less than $3 a box, while imported lemons were selling at an average of $2.33 per box. With the present exchange rate the foreign lemon grower can exchange $2.33 for a much larger sum in his own country."

ISSUES WARNING

INCOME TAXES MUST BE PAID BY DECEMBER 15, ASSERTS COLLECTOR CARTER

John P. Carter, collector of internal revenue, issued a warning to income taxpayers today that the last quarterly installment of their 1919 taxes must be paid by December 15, or delinquents will suffer the seizure of real and personal property on a distraint warrant.

The warning also carried the message that those who do not receive a tax bill by December 10, should not wait longer for one, but must call for it at the offices in the federal building. It is not within the collector's province to extend the tax paying period.

The time for the filing of the 1920 income tax returns is not far distant. This will begin after January 1, and the returns must be in not later than February 15.

Persons remitting the last quarterly payment by letter should write name and address plainly and accurately.

LITTLE CHILD DIES IN FIRE
FRANKFORT, Ky.—With her dress ablaze, caught from the grate fire, four-year-old Louisa Craig, daughter of Sherman Craig, ran into a clothes closet and set the house on fire while her mother was away. The fire was extinguished and the flames from the child's clothes smothered out by neighbors, who were summoned by her older sister. The child died as a result of her burns.

MAIL BOXES ON STREET CARS.
HAMBURG—Street car mail boxes hasten the collection of Hamburg letters and telegrams. Each street car has a mail box which is emptied once each trip. In this way letters are constantly traveling on their way to the postoffice from the moment they are placed in the box, instead of waiting in a stationary box until the collector arrives.

COST OF VOTES

NOVEMBER ELECTION FIGURES 80 CENTS PER VOTE, IS OFFICER'S ESTIMATE

Did you vote at the general election in November? You probably did. Well, your vote cost the county of Los Angeles about 80 cents. Each vote cast in the election cost the county approximately 80 cents.

Figures compiled in the office of D. B. Lyons, registrar of voters, and the board of supervisors, indicate that the bills for election expenses will total about $200,000 and there were about 250,000 votes cast in the county.

The pre-election cost of printing and sending out sample ballots, including postage and other details, aggregated about $17,000. This does not include the cost of printing and preparing the arguments on the different amendments, which was borne by the state.

The heaviest single item in election expense was the salaries of election officials, which was about $75,000. Other items were cost of ballot paper, $8860; printing, $5645; delivering supplies, $3000, and other incidentals which brought the total around $22,000.

Rent of polling places, janitor services and other details added a large amount to the expense bill. It is estimated the official canvass of the vote cost about $5000.

WHALE HIGH JUMPER

HOLDS RECORD FOR LEAP INTO AIR; COMPARISON IS MADE WITH OTHER RECORDS

If you were asked the question: "What animal can jump the highest?" you would, in all likelihood, guess wrong. It is the whale!

Oh, yes, the whale is an animal, not a fish, and he can jump out of the water to a height of twenty-five feet with the greatest ease. This is about twice as high as the tiger, who can manage about twelve and one-half feet to thirteen feet. A dog has been known to clear ten feet, and the horse follows next with seven feet eight and one-half inches.

Man's record high jump was made in 1914 by a Californian who reached six feet seven and five-sixteenths inches. In 1913, the tremendous height of five feet five and three-quarters inches was attained for the standing high jump, though in 1892 a man reached six feet, with weights, at this jump.

As regards the long jump, without weights, the record, twenty-four feet eleven and three-quarters inches, was made in 1901, and it has now stood for nearly twenty years.

The longest jump backwards, with weights, is twelve feet eleven inches, and the holder of this record also holds that of the standing long jump, without weights, with twelve feet one and one-half inches.

Of animals, one might expect the kangaroo to hold the record, but he can only manage fifteen feet—ten feet less than man—though, talking of long jumps, how about the grass hopper? He can jump 200 times his own length.

MANY LOSE BONDS

MILLIONS OF DOLLARS WORTH OF GOVERNMENT SECURITIES
ARE TAKEN BY SHARKS

Figures are not available, but government agents estimate that millions of dollars' worth of liberty bonds found their way into the hands of stock sharks, who exchanged fictitious securities for the bonds of persons who for reasons best known to themselves decided that they were getting the best of the bargain.

Large sums of money are lost each year through the operations of stock promoters of various mythical concerns, and even the "blue sky" laws enacted by a number of states have not had the effect of giving complete security from the wily salesman.

Not only have immense sums of money found their way into the hands of persons who failed to give anything of value in return, but the business of placing legitimate stocks on the market has been greatly injured. Concerns which need money for expansion, find it difficult because of the operations of the rascally promoters.

Licensing of stock salesmen has been tried, but it has not proved altogether effective in practice. The proposal to require the fullest publicity of all plans for the floating of stocks, the amount of money to be raised, the purpose for which it is to be used and the persons who will manage the funds, would at least enable the prospective investor to go into the scheme with his eyes open.

The sale of stocks of doubtful value is made more easy on account of the disinclination of so many persons to seek the advice of their bankers before making investments in enterprises of which they know nothing except what they read in a glowing prospectus. Millions of dollars would be saved each year if the advice of bankers was sought and followed.

The mere fact that so much money is flung from innocent investors in itself had enough from the standpoint of business morals, but one of the effects of fraudulent stock sales is found in the injury they do to legitimate business—the diversion of money from such business and the suspicion that is created in the minds of persons who are losers in wildcat stocks.

Those engaged in legitimate brokerage business not only, but those engaged in all legitimate businesses as well, owe it to themselves to help weed out the sharks who prey on the gullible, an undertaking in which much good has been accomplished by chambers of commerce and other trade bodies.

The principal occupation of a lot of persons seems to be not to develop strength, but to conceal weakness.

TEST OF STRENGTH

PRODUCER OF FOODSTUFFS AND PUBLIC MAY CLASH BECAUSE OF PRICE FORCING

It is extremely unfortunate for the interests of all the people that economic conditions have brought about what may develop into a class warfare—a test of strength between the producers of foodstuffs and the public which consumes them.

The president of the Farmers' National Congress, which met in Columbus, Ohio, a few days ago, made the charge that there was a conspiracy of grain manipulators and certain financial interests to injure the farmers by forcing the prices of their products below the cost of raising them. The head of the congress maintained that farmers had the right to withhold their products from the markets until such a time as they would receive fair prices for them. The right to do this at the expense of consumers is very doubtful.

It is admitted that the farmer can sell wheat considerably below $3 a bushel, and the farmers express a willingness to have prices regulated by the law of supply and demand, but they do object to being made the victims of grain gamblers, whose operations are injurious to producers and consumers alike. Intelligent farmers must know that they cannot hope to win in an attempt to maintain the price of wheat at $3, or any other price that is not justified by the laws of economics. That they should have relief from the machinations of speculators is admitted, and they should insist that congress provide this relief.

The greatest prosperity in the United States will be realized when all classes—producers and consumers of all sorts of products—are willing to exchange money for goods on a basis that is fair to all. The business man expects his profit-earning months to offset the ones that are not so good, and a little more, if he would succeed. The farmer must be willing to do the same, and not expect to become the beneficiary of a system of price maintenance that is unsound and will eventually work harm to the ones who attempt to enforce it.

LUNCH COUNTERS CUT PRICES

SAN FRANCISCO—Joy reigned on Howard street—the Fifth avenue of the jobless—today, when the lunch counters announced that coffee, effective today, would retail at 5 cents a cup and pork and beans at 10 cents. For about two years coffee has been a dime and the famous Boston delicacy 15 cents.

JAPAN TO BUILD

TEN STRATEGIC BASES WILL BE CONSTRUCTED; DEFENSE
SYSTEM PROPOSED

By HENRY W. KINNEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
TOKIO (By mail).—The defense of the outlying portions of the Japanese empire is now occupying both the military and the naval authorities, it having been decided to construct at least ten strongholds at various strategic points.

These will be constructed, of course, in such a way that advantage will be taken of the lessons taught by the war, and whereas the defense of the islands south of Japan proper has heretofore been in charge of the navy department, arrangements have now been made whereby the war department will co-operate therewith.

It is significant that the first move has been taken with regard to the Bonin islands, and a commission of military officers left a short time ago for these islands in order to make a study of the defense thereof.

Very Much Like England

It must be remembered that the position of Japan, in time of war, is very much like that of England. Both countries depend on imports by sea of foodstuffs and raw materials, and the enemy that can stop the sea lanes leading to Japan has that country by the throat, even though not a single soldier be landed.

It is understood that Japan intends to take full advantage of the string of islands placed under her control by the Paris conference, namely Saipan, the Carolines and the Marshalls, which were formerly German, but which are now being Japanized as rapidly as possible, and they will without much doubt be used for the establishment of submarine bases, as by this means a string of submarines, of which Japan is now constructing a great number, would form a formidable defense against any fleet approaching from the east.

Mobilization of Industries

Great attention is also being paid to the question of mobilization of national industries for war purposes in times of emergencies, a conference in regard thereto having taken place only a few days ago at the official residence of the premier.

"The present ministry has had the necessary estimates passed by the diet," the premier is quoted as having said on that occasion, "and the plan of national defense is now being proceeded with. In order to insure the facilitation of industrial mobilization for military purposes, the old munitions bureau and the bureau of statistics have been transformed into one national defense census board, while a system of carrying out regular investigations into the condition of industrial factories, mines, railways, marine transport and the like has been established."

FIGHT FOR CHILD

RICH MOTHER LOSES BATTLE
IN COURT FOR CUSTODY
OF "BABY IRENE"

TORONTO, Ont.—The last resource upon which Mrs. Frederick Matters of Chicago pinned her hope of regaining possession of "Baby Irene," claimed by two mothers, was exhausted here when the appellate division of the supreme court upheld a decision of the lower court awarding the child to Margaret Ryan of Ottawa.

By the same process of law the child was excluded from falling heir to over $300,000, which would have been hers as daughter of the rich American.

Ever since the two women, Mrs. Matters and Margaret Ryan, were inmates of Misericordia hospital, the fight over "Baby Irene" has raged in the courts. Both had become mothers, but only one child had lived.

Months of litigation, with both women claiming the living child, resulted in the decision of Justice Lennox last December that a substitution had taken place and that Margaret Ryan was really the mother of the infant girl.
